Storage Asset Management Expands in Georgia

Storage Asset Management, Inc. (SAM) has been awarded two new self-storage management contracts to kick off the second quarter of 2015. SAM will now manage Small Spaces Self Storage in Fleetwood, PA; and Lookout Self Storage in Rossville, GA. These are the fifth and sixth management contracts that SAM has been awarded in 2015 and their first managed facility in Georgia.

Small Spaces Storage is a 21, 575 square foot facility with 183 total units. The gated and fenced facility features temperature controlled units and drive up accessible units, along with the ability to rent a storage unit online. This facility is a brand new constructed property.

Lookout Self Storage is comprised of 458 temperature controlled units. Each unit has their own light and the facility features the ability to reserve a storage unit online. Lookout Self Storage was previously an office building that has been converted into a self-storage facility.

Alyssa Quill, VP, says “We are very excited to add two additional facilities to our portfolio of managed properties, and especially to expand into Georgia. Our whole team looks forward to a long relationship with the owners and using our proven strategies to lease up the facilities and increase the value of these assets.”
