Storage Asset Management Awarded New Contract in North Ridgeville, OH

Storage Asset Management, Inc. (SAM) has been awarded a new self-storage management contract for Valley Storage in North Ridgeville, OH. The 51,300 square foot, 410 unit facility was previously known as All Secure Storage. The property will undergo a complete rebranding along with the name change.

Owners, Todd and Tina Snook, are very happy to expand Valley Storage into Ohio. The Snooks already own nine locations in Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia, all which are managed by Storage Asset Management. Todd says "We are looking forward to being able to service the community with even more locations and continuing our high standard of customer service."

Alyssa Quill, VP, says "We are very excited to work in Ohio. Our whole team looks forward to the opening of a new Valley Storage location and using our proven strategies to increase the value of their assets."
